SECOND INTERIM APPLICATION OF ROTHSCHILD INC. FOR COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

Rothschild Inc. (“Rothschild”), financial advisor and investment banker for Delphi Corporation (“Delphi” or the “Company”), together its affiliated debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the “Debtors” or the “Company”), makes this second interim application for compensation and reimbursement of expenses, and in support thereof respectfully represents:

1. This application is made pursuant to (i) Sections 330 and 331 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), (ii) Rules 2014 and 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), (iii) Administrative Order M-150, Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases (the “Amended Guidelines”), (iv) the Order of this Court, dated November 4, 2005 (together with each supplemental order, the “Fee Order”), Establishing Procedures for Monthly Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Chapter 11 Professionals, (v) the Order of this Court, dated October 14, 2005 (the “Interim Retention Order”), Authorizing Retention of Rothschild Inc. as Investment Banker and Financial Advisor for the Debtors, nunc pro tunc to October 8, 2005, the commencement of the Debtors’ cases, and (vi) the Order of this Court, dated November 30, 2005 (the “Final Retention Order”, and together with the Interim Retention Order, the Retention Orders"), Authorizing Retention of Rothschild Inc. as Investment Banker and Financial Advisor for the Debtors. Copies of the Retention Orders are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

BACKGROUND

2. On October 8, 2005 (the "Filing Date"), 39 of 42 Debtors, and on October 14, 2005, the remaining Debtors, filed voluntary petitions in this Court under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to operate their business and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. With more than 180,000 employees worldwide, global 2004 revenues of approximately $28.6 billion, and global assets as of August 31, 2005 of approximately $17.1 billion,<sup>1</sup> Delphi ranks as the fifth largest public company business reorganization in terms of revenues, and the thirteenth largest public company business reorganization in terms of assets. Delphi's non-U.S. subsidiaries are not Chapter 11 debtors, will continue their business operations without supervision from the Bankruptcy Court, and will not be subject to the Chapter 11 requirements of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

4. Over the past century, the operations which are now owned by Delphi have become a leading global technology innovator with significant engineering resources and technical competencies in a variety of disciplines. Today, the Company is arguably the single largest global supplier of vehicle electronics, transportation components, integrated systems and modules, and other electronic technology. The Company's technologies and products are present in more than 75 million vehicles on the road worldwide. The Company supplies products to nearly every major global automotive original equipment manufacturer ("OEM") with 2004 sales to its former parent, General Motors Corporation ("GM"), equaling approximately $15.4 billion and sales to each of Ford Motor Company, DaimlerChrysler Corporation, Renault/Nissan Motor Company, Ltd., and Volkswagen Group exceeding $850 million.

5. As part of its growth strategy, Delphi has established an expansive global presence with a network of manufacturing sites, technical centers, sales offices, and joint ventures located in every major region of the world. In the U.S., the Debtors employ approximately 50,600 people. Those employees work in approximately 44 manufacturing sites and 13 technical centers across the country, and in Delphi's worldwide headquarters and customer center located in Troy, Michigan. Approximately 34,750 of these individuals are hourly employees, 96% of whom are represented by approximately 49 different international and local unions. Outside the United States, the Company's foreign entities employ more than 134,000 people, supporting 120 manufacturing sites and 20 technical centers across nearly 40 countries worldwide.

6. In the first two years following Delphi's separation from GM, the Company generated more than $2 billion in net income. Every year thereafter, however, with the exception of 2002, the Company has suffered losses. In calendar year 2004, the Company reported a net operating loss of $482 million on $28.6 billion in net sales. Reflective of a downturn in the marketplace, Delphi's financial condition has deteriorated further in the first six months of 2005. The Company experienced net operating losses of $608 million for the first six months of calendar year 2005 on six-month net sales of $13.9 billion, which is approximately $1 billion less in sales than during the same time period in calendar year 2004.<sup>2</sup>

7. The Debtors believe that three significant issues have largely contributed to the deterioration of the Company's financial performance: (a) increasingly unsustainable U.S. legacy liabilities and operational restrictions driven by collectively bargained agreements, including restrictions preventing the Debtors from exiting non-strategic, non-profitable operations, all of which have the effect of creating largely fixed labor costs, (b) a competitive U.S. vehicle production environment for domestic OEMs resulting in the reduced number of motor vehicles that GM produces annually in the United States and related pricing pressures, and (c) increasing commodity prices.

8. In light of these factors, the Company determined that it would be imprudent and irresponsible to defer addressing and resolving its U.S. legacy liabilities, product portfolio, operational issues, and forward looking revenue requirements. Having concluded that pre-filing discussions with its unions and GM were not leading to the implementation of a plan sufficient to address the Debtors' issues on a timely basis, the Company determined to commence these Chapter 11 cases for its U.S. businesses to complete the Debtors' transformation plan and preserve value.

RETENTION OF ROTHSCHILD

9. By letter agreement dated May 1, 2005 and amended as of October 8, 2005 (and as may be further amended, modified or supplemented from time to time, including by the Retention Orders, the "Engagement Letter"), the Debtors retained Rothschild to assist the <sup>2</sup> Reported net losses in calendar year 2004 were $4.8 billion, reflecting a $4.1 billion tax charge, primarily related to the recording of a valuation allowance on the U.S. deferred tax assets as of December 31, 2004.

Debtors with a possible restructuring. A copy of the Engagement Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Pursuant to the terms of the Engagement Letter, by letter agreement dated May 17, 2006, the Debtors confirmed their earlier oral instructions requesting that Rothschild serve as the Company's primary financial advisor and investment banker in connection with the Company's proposed sales of its Steering and Interior businesses, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

10. Rothschild understands the Debtors chose to retain Rothschild due to Rothschild's reputation as a leading investment banking firm and financial advisor and its substantial experience advising debtors, creditors' committees and other parties in interest in connection with all aspects of the financial restructuring and Chapter 11 cases, including financial advice regarding mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, public and private financings and spin-offs and evaluation of assets and liabilities, formulation and negotiation of plans of reorganization and the restructuring of indebtedness.

11. Rothschild respectfully refers this Court to the Engagement Letter for a full recitation of its terms. In summary, Rothschild was retained by the Debtors to:

- (a) to the extent deemed desirable by the Debtors, identify and/or initiate potential Transactions (as defined in the Engagement Letter) or other transactions;
- (b) to the extent Rothschild deems necessary, appropriate and feasible, or as the Debtors may request, review and analyze the Debtors' assets and the operating and financial strategies of the Debtors;
- (c) assist the Company in developing and evaluating strategic alternatives with respect to the Company's legacy liabilities;
- (d) review and analyze the business plans and financial projections prepared by the Debtors including, but not limited to, testing assumptions and comparing those assumptions to historical Company and industry trends;
- (e) evaluate the Debtors' debt capacity in light of their projected cash flows and assist in the determination of an appropriate capital structure for the Debtors;

(f) assist the Debtors and their other professionals in reviewing the terms of any proposed Transaction or other transaction, in responding thereto and, if directed, in evaluating alternative proposals for a Transaction or other transaction, whether in connection with a Plan (as defined in the Engagement Letter) or otherwise;

(g) determine a range of values for the Debtors and any securities that the Debtors offer or propose to offer in connection with a Transaction or other transaction;

(h) advise the Debtors on the risks and benefits of considering a Transaction or other transaction with respect to the Debtors' intermediate and long-term business prospects and strategic alternatives to maximize the business enterprise value of the Debtors, whether pursuant to a Plan or otherwise;

(i) review and analyze any proposals the Debtors receive from third parties in connection with a Transaction or other transaction, including, without limitation, any proposals for debtor-in-possession financing, as appropriate;

(j) assist or participate in negotiations with the parties in interest, including, without limitation, any current or prospective creditors of, holders of equity in, or claimants against the Debtors and/or their respective representatives in connection with a Transaction or other transaction;

(k) advise and attend meetings of the Debtors' Board of Directors, creditor groups, official constituencies and other interested parties, as necessary;

(l) participate in hearings before the Bankruptcy Court (the "Bankruptcy Court") and provide relevant testimony with respect to the matters described in the Engagement Letter and issues arising in connection with any proposed Plan;

(m) assist the Debtors' internal and external counsel to enable such counsel to provide legal advice to the Debtors; and

(n) render such other financial advisory and investment banking services as may be agreed upon by Rothschild and the Debtors in connection with any of the foregoing.

COMPENSATION

12. Pursuant to the Engagement Letter, as amended by and as more fully set forth in the Final Retention Order, in consideration for the services provided to the Debtors, the Debtors have agreed to pay Rothschild the following amounts, pursuant to Section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code, and subject to the final approval of the Bankruptcy Court:

(a) A retainer (the "Retainer") in an amount equal to the Monthly Fee (as defined below), to be applied against the fees and expenses of Rothschild under the Rothschild Agreement.

(b) Commencing as of the date of the Engagement Letter, and whether or not a Transaction is proposed or consummated, a cash advisory fee (the "Monthly Fee") of $250,000 per month. The Monthly Fee shall be payable by the Company in advance on the first day of each month.

(c) a fee (the "Completion Fee") of $15,000,000, due and payable in cash upon the earlier of (i) the confirmation and effectiveness of a Plan or (ii) the closing of another Transaction; provided, that Rothschild shall credit against the Completion Fee: (X) 50% of the M&A Fee (as defined below); (Y) 50% of the New Capital Fees (as defined below) and (Z) to the extent not otherwise applied against the fees and expenses of Rothschild under the terms of the Rothschild Agreement, the Retainer; provided that the sum of such credits shall not exceed the Completion Fee.

(d) In the case of any M&A Transaction for which Rothschild is designated by the Company as the Company's primary advisor and investment banker, and which does not arise out of a Transaction for which a Completion Fee is due, a fee (the "M&A Fee") (as defined in the Engagement Letter).

(e) A new capital fee (the "New Capital Fee") equal to (i) 1.0% of any senior secured debt raised; (ii) 3.0% of the face amount of any junior secured or senior or subordinated unsecured debt (including any convertible debt) raised and (iii) 5.0% of any equity or hybrid capital raised (each a "New Capital Raise"), in each case, in which Rothschild is designated by the Company as the Company's primary advisor and investment banker. The New Capital Fee shall be due and payable in cash at the closing of any New Capital Raise; provided, that no New Capital Fee shall become payable in respect of any new capital raised (x) with respect to any debtor-in-possession financing arrangements; (y) from an entity not otherwise participating in or having expressed an interest in participating in a Transaction; or (z) from an Acquirer or an entity having expressed an interest in becoming an Acquirer in connection with the consummation of a Transaction which is intended to occur simultaneously with or within a reasonable period after the closing of such New Capital Raise.

(f) To the extent the Company requests Rothschild to perform additional services not contemplated by the Rothschild Agreement, such additional fees as shall be mutually agreed upon by Rothschild and the Company, in writing, in advance.

13. Pursuant to the Engagement Letter and the Final Retention Order, the Debtors will reimburse Rothschild for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the provision of services under the Engagement Letter, including without limitation the reasonable fees, disbursements and other charges of Rothschild's outside counsel. Out-of-pocket expenses shall also include, but not be limited to, reasonable expenses incurred in connection with travel and lodging, data processing and communication charges, research and courier services.<sup>3</sup>

14. Pursuant to the terms of the Final Retention Order and the Fee Order, Rothschild has submitted monthly statements of fees and disbursements to (i) the Debtors, (ii) counsel to the Debtors, (iii) counsel for the official committee of unsecured creditors, (iv) the Office of the United States Trustee, (v) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' prepetition credit facility, (vi) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' post-petition credit facility and (vii) the members of any Committee appointed in these cases for the purpose of reviewing fees and expenses. Pursuant to the Fee Order, Rothschild has been paid, or anticipates that it will be paid, 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses identified in each monthly statement to which no objection has been served. The monthly fee statements delivered by Rothschild, and amounts received in respect thereof, are summarized in the following table:

Statement Period	Statement Amount		Payments Received
	Fees	Expenses <sup>4</sup>	Fees	Expenses
Oct. 2005	$193,548.39	$13,888.45	$154,838.71	$13,888.45

RELIEF REQUESTED

15. By this Application, Rothschild seeks an Order (i) granting interim allowance and approval of compensation for services rendered during the period February 1, 2006 through and including May 31, 2006 (the “Relevant Period”), consisting of $1,000,000.00 of fees plus the reimbursement of reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by Rothschild during the Relevant Period in the amount of $65,200.96, for a total of $1,065,200.96, (ii) authorizing and directing the Debtors to make payment in respect of 100% of such fees, to the extent not yet received by Rothschild for the Relevant Period, including, without limitation, the 20% holdback amount withheld pursuant to the terms of the Fee Order<sup>5</sup>; and (iii) authorizing and directing the Debtors to pay 100% of such expenses, to the extent not yet received by Rothschild for the Relevant Period.

16. All services for which compensation is sought were performed for and on behalf of the Debtors. Rothschild has not entered into any agreement, express or implied, with any party in interest for the purpose of fixing or sharing fees or other compensation to be paid for professional services rendered in these cases

17. Annexed hereto as Exhibit C are invoices for the total compensation and expenses sought by Rothschild for the Relevant Period and a breakdown of Rothschild’s expenses

<sup>5</sup> Pursuant to the Fee Order, 20% of the accrued fees have been held back from each monthly statement. In light of the fact that a substantial portion of Rothschild’s fees consists of a completion fee and therefore by its very nature is substantially “back-ended” even without a holdback, Rothschild requests relief from the holdback in its monthly and interim fee statements. The Debtors support, and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors does not oppose Rothschild’s request for this relief.

incurred during the Relevant Period. Attached hereto as Exhibit D are daily time logs detailing the activities and services performed by Rothschild on behalf of the Debtors during the Relevant Period. The resumes of key professionals of Rothschild providing services to the Debtors are attached as Exhibit E.

LEGAL BASIS FOR REQUESTED COMPENSATION

18. Rothschild is entitled to receive the fees it has requested in accordance with the express terms of the Engagement Letter and the provisions of Section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for the award of compensation to professionals. See 11 U.S.C. § 330. Section 330, by its terms, is “subject to” the provisions of Section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code. Id. Section 328(a) permits a debtor, with the Court’s approval, to employ a professional person “on any reasonable terms and conditions of employment, including on a retainer, on an hourly basis, or on a contingent fee basis.” See 11 U.S.C. § 328(a).

19. Section 328 represents a departure from the practice that prevailed prior to the enactment of the Bankruptcy Code in 1978. The purpose of Section 328 was to permit the pre-approval of compensation arrangements as a method of insuring that the most competent professionals would be available to provide services in bankruptcy cases. See In re Westbrooks, 202 B.R. 520, 521 (Bankr. N.D. Ala. 1996) (percentage fee arrangements “comport with the Bankruptcy Code’s goal of attracting highly qualified professionals to the bankruptcy forum”); In re Olympia Holding Corp., 176 B.R. 962, 964 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 1994).

20. Once the terms of a professional’s retention have been approved under Section 328(a), the agreed-upon compensation cannot be altered unless the agreed terms “prove to have been improvident in light of developments not capable of being anticipated at the time of the fixing of such terms and conditions.” 11 U.S.C. § 328(a); see also In re Reimers, 972 F.2d 1127, 1128 (9th Cir. 1992) (compensation agreement approved under Section 328(a) must be enforced in the absence of unforeseeable circumstances, and is not subject to a “reasonableness” review under Section 330); In the Matter of National Gypsum Company, 123 F.3d 861 (5th Cir. 1997) (same); In re Olympia Holding Corp., 176 B.R. at 964 (same). As the Court explained in National Gypsum:

If the most competent professionals are to be available for complicated capital restructuring and the development of successful corporate reorganization, they must know what they will receive for their expertise and commitment. Courts must protect those agreements and expectations, once found to be acceptable.

21. Pursuant to the Final Retention Order, this Court approved the retention of Rothschild under the terms of the Engagement Letter, subject to the standard of review provided under Section 328(a). See Final Retention Order at pages 2-3.

22. The compensation for services rendered during the Relevant Period has been earned and is due and payable in full under the terms of the Engagement Letter. Rothschild submits that there have been no developments since the entry of the Final Retention Order that were “not capable of being anticipated” and that would justify any modification to the terms of Rothschild’s retention. Accordingly, Rothschild submits that the fees and expense reimbursements sought herein should be allowed and approved by this Court pursuant to Sections 328(a) and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

23. Senior level professionals with extensive experience in the area of investment banking and bankruptcy services have directed Rothschild’s team. The investment banking services set forth above were performed primarily by David L. Resnick, Managing Director; William R. Shaw, Director; Nicole Torraco, Associate; Eric Irion, Analyst; and Michael Stein

Analyst, as well as other professionals and paraprofessionals, as needed. Rothschild's general staffing policy is to assign senior bankers, experienced junior bankers and financial analysts to each restructuring assignment. The senior banker, in this case David L. Resnick, has overall responsibility for the case. He is primarily responsible for developing strategy with respect to the case, directing negotiations and interfacing with the other senior professionals involved with the case. The additional senior banker, in this case William Shaw, is responsible for day-to-day coordination of the case and the review of all financial analyses. The experienced junior banker, in this case Nicole Torraco, assists in the day-to-day coordination of the case and performs with the financial analysts, Eric Irion and Michael Stein, extensive financial analyses. The senior bankers, the experienced junior banker and the financial analysts coordinate their actions so as not to duplicate efforts. Given that the senior bankers, the experienced junior banker and the financial analysts have different roles in the case but have overlapping responsibilities, there are frequent times where it is appropriate for two or more bankers to be present at a meeting. In addition to the bankers noted above, Rothschild also has two separate teams of bankers responsible for the Steering and Interiors sale processes. The Steering sale process is being performed by Christopher Lawrence, Vice Chairman; Nigel Bell, Director; Alyssa Kurganska, Vice President; Irene Fayn, Associate; and Ali Akbar Causer, Analyst. The Interiors sale process is being performed by Christopher Lawrence, Vice Chairman; Michael Barr, Managing Director; William D. Cannon, Vice President; Colin Savage, Associate; and Alexander Ridings, Analyst.

24. The amount of fees and expenses sought in this application and Rothschild's billing processes are consistent with market practices for investment banking firms both in and out of a bankruptcy context. Rothschild's policy for all engagements, in or out of bankruptcy, is to dedicate the appropriate number of professionals to the assignment to complete the work as efficiently as possible.

25. Rothschild does not bill its clients based on the number of hours expended by its professionals. It bills clients on a retainer basis (generally monthly), plus a transaction fee or fees based upon completion. Accordingly, Rothschild does not have hourly rates for its professionals and Rothschild's professionals generally do not maintain time records for the work performed for its clients. Consistent with the terms of the Final Retention Order, however, Rothschild has maintained a daily time log detailing the activities and services performed by Rothschild on behalf of the Debtors, in half-hour increments, during the Relevant Period. A copy of these records is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

26. Given the size and complexity of this case, the complicated corporate and financial structure of the Debtors, the degree of activity during the Relevant Period and the high level of services rendered by Rothschild to the Debtors, Rothschild believes that the compensation sought is fair and reasonable.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES RENDERED

27. All services rendered by Rothschild during the Relevant Period were performed at the request or direction of the Debtors or legal professionals of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP ("Skadden") or O'Melveny & Myers LLP ("O'Melveny"). Rothschild has provided a broad range of necessary financial advisory services. Major areas of effort performed during the Relevant Period can be summarized into the following general categories:

A. Financial Analysis and Due Diligence Process

28. As the Company has updated its financial outlook during the ordinary course, including, but not limited to, quarterly results (the “3+9”) and the impact of the Attrition Program, Rothschild has conducted ongoing due diligence involving numerous meetings and telephone calls with officers of the Debtors. The subjects reviewed included the reasonableness of the assumptions underlying the projections, the historical financial results of the Debtors, and numerous other matters.

29. Rothschild reviewed detailed quarterly and annual operating data and forecasts as part of its continuing due diligence regarding the Debtors’ long-term business prospects. Rothschild helped challenge and vet the assumptions underlying these projections, which required daily interaction with the Company management and finance team.

B. Transformation Model

30. The Debtors completed their transformation projections in March 2006 (“Transformation Model”). Rothschild has assisted in analyzing and vetting the Transformation Model and working with the Company and FTI to develop and prepare presentations on the projections. Rothschild participated in numerous calls and meetings with the Debtors and FTI to review the projections and underlying assumptions, and also participated in calls and meetings with the constituency advisors.

C. 2007 Business Plan Model Development

31. Rothschild has worked closely with FTI to assist in and provide guidance on development of an Excel model template that will serve as the model for development of the Debtors’ 2007 business plan, which the Company prepares annually in the ordinary course. Rothschild’s participation in development of the model included weekly calls with FTI and Delphi management; review of various exemplary templates, modules, and spreadsheets; and consideration of budgeting process and instructions.

D. Recapitalization Model

32. Rothschild developed a consolidated detailed recapitalization model (the “Recap Model”) to analyze the projected financial results of the Company’s detailed and comprehensive operating and financial projections for years 2006 through 2010 (the “Steady State”) and the transformation scenarios under various capital structures. With this model, Rothschild analyzed numerous scenarios in conjunction with the ongoing negotiations among Delphi, General Motors (“GM”), and the unions, including assessment of GM and Delphi proposals regarding potential GM support. Major variables include, but are not limited to, the timing and amount of subsidies from GM, treatment of Delphi’s legacy liabilities including OPEB and pension, emergence capital structures, and labor cost savings. Rothschild has updated its Recap Model and analysis for finalized projections from the Debtors.

E. Preliminary Valuation and Debt Capacity Analysis

33. Rothschild has performed preliminary research and detailed analysis on valuation and operating metrics of selected automotive suppliers. Rothschild has utilized these metrics to benchmark Delphi’s operating performance against that of selected competitors. Rothschild has also developed an analysis of historical precedent industry transactions to assess the associated valuation multiple statistics. Rothschild continues to update for recent competitor results and refine these analyses.

34. Rothschild has also done preliminary work for use in developing a comprehensive debt capacity analysis by examining the credit statistics (both historical and current) of selected automotive suppliers and credit rating agency standards (“Debt Capacity Analysis”) for assessing possible recapitalization alternatives on a preliminary basis.

F. Creditor Due Diligence Process

35. Rothschild assisted the Company in coordinating the extensive due diligence process (“Creditor Diligence Process”) of Jefferies and Co. (“Jefferies”), as advisor to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Lazard Ltd. (“Lazard”), as advisor to the UAW and Compass Advisers LLP (“Compass”), as advisor to the PBGC. The Creditor Diligence Process as it relates to Compass was initiated in April 2006 (subsequent to the Jefferies and Lazard processes) and has included sessions to review, among other topics, the Debtors’ operations, historical performance, work performed prior to filing for Chapter 11, the Steady State, including the various underlying sales, costs, balance sheet and cash flow assumptions, and the transformation projections. Rothschild also held sessions with Compass to review the Transformation Model published in October 2005. Rothschild answered their follow-up questions regarding the model and its functionality, and coordinated and attended teleconference calls with the Debtors on the subject.

36. Rothschild coordinated and facilitated Company responses to numerous due diligence requests of each Jefferies, Lazard, and Compass regarding operations, financial results, projections, labor cost structure, court motions, and other topics. Throughout the period, Rothschild has had numerous discussions to answer questions, clarify requests, and coordinate the process. Additionally, Rothschild professionals coordinated and participated with the Debtors in due diligence conference calls requested separately by Jefferies, Lazard or Compass throughout the Creditor Diligence Process regarding such topics as financial projections, Transformation Model, attrition plan analyses, 3+9 forecast and Steady State projections.

G. Equity Committee Diligence Process

37. Rothschild assisted the Company in coordinating the due diligence process of the Committee of Equity Security Holders (“Equity Committee Diligence Process”). The Equity Committee Diligence Process, which began in May 2006, included sessions with the Committee members to review, among other topics, the Debtors’ operations, historical performance, work performed prior to filing for Chapter 11, the Steady State, including the various underlying sales, costs, balance sheet and cash flow assumptions, and preliminary transformation projections. Rothschild also held sessions to review the Transformation Model. Rothschild has answered numerous follow-up questions regarding the model and its functionality, and coordinated and attended a teleconference call with the Debtors on the subject.

38. Rothschild coordinated and facilitated Company responses to due diligence requests of the Equity Committee relating to the Transformation and has had numerous discussions to answer questions, clarify requests, and coordinate the process.

H. Appaloosa Motion to Appoint an Equity Committee

39. In March 2006, the Debtors filed an Objection to the Motion of Appaloosa Management LP (“Appaloosa”) to appoint an Equity Committee. In support of Appaloosa’s Motion to appoint an Equity Committee, Appaloosa’s financial advisor, Eureka Capital, prepared an Expert Report, and, in response, Rothschild prepared an Expert Rebuttal Report (“the Report”). Preparation of the Report entailed, but was not limited to, a detailed review and evaluation of the Eureka Expert Report, assessment and analysis of market data and information, Delphi financial data, and discussions with Delphi management.

40. As part of Appaloosa's motion, Stephen A. Greene and Mark Hyman, partners at Eureka Capital, provided testimony and declarations. Rothschild evaluated and assessed the contents of these Court submissions and David Resnick submitted a declaration and provided testimony responding to the Eureka Expert Report. With respect to the Appaloosa Motion and Eureka Expert Report, Mr. Resnick and his team held numerous internal meetings, and meetings and telephone calls with Delphi management and Skadden.

41. As part of Appaloosa's motion, Appaloosa and its counsel, White & Case LLP, conducted an extensive discovery process. Rothschild assisted the Debtors and Skadden in identifying and culling the data responsive to these discovery requests.

I. Board Meetings & Discussions

42. Rothschild, along with Company management and Skadden, has met regularly with the Board to keep its members informed of all relevant developments in the Company's bankruptcy proceedings. Rothschild has participated in frequent conference calls and meetings with the Board and sought its members' input, direction and approval on all relevant matters.

J. Creditor / Equity Meetings & Discussions

43. Rothschild participated in regularly scheduled meetings/calls with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors and its advisors to report on and respond to questions concerning the financial implications of current operating results, current liquidity, the Debtors' strategic business plan, status of discussions with the unions and General Motors, the due diligence process and other matters concerning the Chapter 11 cases. Rothschild assisted in preparing detailed presentations and discussion materials.

44. Since appointment of the Official Committee of Equity Security Holders in May 2006, Rothschild has participated in regularly scheduled meetings / calls with the Equity Committee to report on and respond to questions concerning the financial implications of current operating results, current liquidity, the Debtors' strategic business plan, status of discussions with the unions and General Motors, the due diligence process and other matters concerning the Chapter 11 cases, and provided detailed presentations and discussion materials similar to those provided to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors and its advisors.

K. Labor Analysis / Negotiations

45. Rothschild supported the Debtors in their labor discussions with the unions. Specifically, Rothschild utilized the Transformation and Recap models to assess the impact of various labor proposals on the Company's projections, reviewed, and helped prepare presentations on these labor proposals. In response to the unions' requests and as part of the negotiations, the Debtors prepared certain analyses and presentations, which Rothschild assessed and vetted. Rothschild participated in numerous regularly scheduled calls and meetings with Company management to review alternatives and assess next steps.

46. Rothschild assisted the Debtors in analyzing the costs and benefits of the Special Attrition Program negotiated with the UAW, including meetings and calls with the Company's management regarding strategy and alternatives.

47. Rothschild has also participated in discussions with Lazard regarding the current status and next steps of discussions between the Debtors and UAW.

L. Motion for Relief Under Sections 1113 and 1114

48. On March 31, 2006, the Debtors filed a Motion for Authority to Reject Collective Bargaining Agreements Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section § 1113(C) and Modification of Retiree Welfare Benefits Under 11 U.S.C., § 1114(G) ("Section 1113 / 1114 Motion") in support of which David Resnick submitted an expert declaration. In order to prepare this expert declaration, Mr. Resnick and his team extensively evaluated and assessed the current state of the automotive industry, the particular labor-related challenges facing Delphi, the Company's financial projections, among other factors and analyses.

49. Subsequently, in April 2006, the UAW submitted its objection to the Section 1113/1114 Motion along with declarations by senior members of its advisor, Lazard. In response, David Resnick and Bill Shaw prepared and submitted expert testimony and rebuttal declarations. In assisting Mr. Resnick and Mr. Shaw in preparing their declarations, the Rothschild team considered the positions put forth by advisors to the UAW, Lazard, including, but not limited to, financial assessment of Lazard's view on the Company's financial viability, testament to information sharing with Lazard, and evaluation of market conditions and other factors impacting the need for modifications to labor contracts.

50. Rothschild reviewed draft Section 1113 / 1114 filings and participated in regular calls and meetings with the Company's counsel (Skadden and O'Melveny) and Delphi management to review the Section 1113 / 1114 process and next steps to prepare for trial and prepare expert testimony and declarations. Rothschild also participated in the Section 1113/ 1114 court hearings as well as in numerous meetings and calls to discuss trial status and strategy.

M. GM Analysis / Negotiations

51. Rothschild has worked extensively with the Company in its ongoing negotiations with General Motors (“GM”) over potential consensual resolution and financial support. This work has encompassed numerous regularly scheduled conference calls and in-person meetings in Detroit and New York on these matters. Rothschild has interfaced regularly with GM senior management as well as GM’s financial advisors, Greenhill & Co., Inc. (“Greenhill”), and prepared a number of presentations on various alternatives for GM participation in Delphi’s reorganization. Rothschild also participated in the negotiations with GM regarding the Special Attrition Program, including meetings and calls with the Debtors, GM and Greenhill. Rothschild reviewed draft agreements and participated in numerous meetings and calls with Company management.

52. Rothschild has utilized its Recap Model to assess the financial impact of various scenarios involving potential support from GM. Rothschild has also participated in numerous calls with the Debtors, GM and Greenhill to review topics such as Delphi’s projections and assumptions, GM revenue contracts, Delphi’s portfolio footprint and matters relating to these Chapter 11 cases.

N. M&A Activity

53. During the Relevant Period, Rothschild’s two M&A teams assisted the Debtors in preparing to market the Company’s Steering and Interiors businesses for sale. Rothschild performed detailed financial and operational due diligence on the businesses, which included numerous meetings and phone calls with Delphi management and site visits. For each of Steering and Interiors, Rothschild developed the draft Confidential Information Memoranda

(“CIMs”), potential sale timelines, lists of potential financial and strategic buyers, and summary business teasers. Rothschild also coordinated the preparation of a confidentiality agreement with counsel and participated in the preparation of the pro forma financials. Rothschild has participated in numerous calls and meetings to review process status with Company management and next steps, including presentations prepared by Rothschild.

O. Miscellaneous

54. During the Relevant Period, Rothschild has advised the Debtors on a number of miscellaneous matters. Rothschild participates in regular conference calls and meetings with the Debtors at the Company’s headquarters to discuss the Debtors’ Chapter 11 cases, financial situation and various related issues.

55. Rothschild coordinated and participated in weekly conference calls with officers of the Debtors and other advisors to the Debtors to discuss current strategic and other issues relating to the Chapter 11 process.

56. Rothschild respectfully submits that the compensation requested for the Relevant Period for services rendered by Rothschild to the Debtors is fully justified and reasonable based on the following: (a) the degree of activity during the Relevant Period and the high level of services rendered by Rothschild to the Debtors, (b) the complexity of the issues presented, (c) the skills necessary to perform the investment banking services properly, (d) the preclusion of other employment, (e) customary fees charged in non-bankruptcy situations for similar services rendered, (f) time constraints required by the exigencies of the case and (g) the experience, reputation and ability of the professionals rendering services.

57. Rothschild respectfully submits that the services it has rendered to the Debtors have been necessary and in the best interest of the Debtors and their estates and have furthered the goals of all parties in interest. Such services were substantial, highly professional and instrumental to the Debtors' reorganization. They were reasonable and necessary to the Debtors' performance of their duties.

EXPENSES INCURRED DURING THE RELEVANT PERIOD

58. Rothschild incurred reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket expenses aggregating $65,200.96 during the Relevant Period. Details of the expenses incurred during the Relevant Period are also provided in Exhibit C. Rothschild submits that all such expenses were necessarily incurred, are reasonable in amount and represent only the actual costs incurred.

59. Rothschild's charges for expenses to the Debtors are determined in the same manner as for clients in non-bankruptcy matters. Out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Rothschild are charged to a client if the expenses are incurred for the client or are otherwise necessary in connection with services rendered for such particular client. Rothschild does not factor general overhead expenses into disbursements charged to clients in connection with Chapter 11 cases. Rothschild has followed its general internal policies with respect to out-of-pocket expenses billed to the Debtors as set forth below, with any exceptions fully explained:

(a) Rothschild's general policy permits its employees to bill lunch or dinner meals to a client if the employee is required to provide services to the client during such mealtime due to extreme time constraints. Rothschild's employees are permitted to order meals in the office if Rothschild's employee is required to work after 8:00 p.m. on weekdays or more than five (5) consecutive hours on weekends or holidays. Meal expenses incurred during meetings which employees and other meeting participants are required to attend are billed at cost.

(b) Messengers and couriers are used by Rothschild to deliver hard copy documents relating to a client matter, which require receipt on an expedited basis; otherwise, Rothschild uses the regular postal system. Any charges for either messengers or couriers are billed to the client at cost.

(c) All airfare and other transportation charges incurred by Rothschild's employees directly in connection with services to the client are billed to client at cost.

(d) The research/database category consists of the cost of using databases (e.g., Securities Data Corporation, Thomson Financial, Factiva, etc.) to which Rothschild subscribes to search for and obtain information used in Rothschild's financial analyses. Rothschild pays the vendor's standard rate for such database services. In certain instances, Rothschild has determined that paying a flat annual or monthly fee for such services is less costly than contracting for such services on a per use basis. Such annual or monthly services are allocated to clients based on such clients' use of each service. The research category also consists of charges from outside services, which supply, for a fee, financial documents from regulatory agencies, which cannot be obtained from databases subscribed to by Rothschild.

(e) Rothschild bills photocopying charges at the rate of $.10 per page for black and white copies and $1.00 per page for color copies.

(f) With respect to local travel, Rothschild's general policy enables employees to travel by taxi or, in certain circumstances, by private car service, to and from meetings while rendering services to a client on a client related matter, for which the client is charged. This policy is based on Rothschild's determination that travel by taxi or private car service is the most efficient use of a professional's time. Rothschild's employees are not permitted to charge personal commuting expenses to a client unless the employee is traveling after 8:00 p.m. and has been required to work late as a result of the time exigencies of that client's matters.

(g) Telephone expenses are charged based on Rothschild's actual cost of telephone charges with respect to client matters. Cellular phone charges are based on vendor's actual invoices.

(h) Word processing charges represent actual costs incurred by Rothschild's in-house vendor and actual cost of overtime secretarial support in connection with client matters

CONCLUSION

60. The services summarized by this application and rendered by Rothschild to the Debtors during the Relevant Period were substantial, highly professional and instrumental to Debtors in furtherance of their restructuring efforts. Rothschild respectfully submits that the compensation requested by this application is reasonable in light of the nature and value of such services.

* * *

WHEREFORE, Rothschild respectfully requests that this Court enter an order (i) granting interim allowance and approval of compensation for services rendered during the Relevant Period, consisting of $1,000,000.00 of fees plus the reimbursement of reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by Rothschild during the Relevant Period in the amount of $65,200.96, for a total of $1,065,200.96, (ii) authorizing and directing the Debtors to make payment in respect of 100% of such fees, to the extent not yet received by Rothschild for the Relevant Period, including, without limitation, the 20% holdback amount withheld pursuant to the terms of the Fee Order; and (iii) authorizing and directing the Debtors to pay 100% of such expenses, to the extent not yet received by Rothschild for the Relevant Period, and (iv) granting such other and further relief as this court deems just and proper.
